

PENDING APPROVAL BY THE DEWITT COMMUNITY LIBRARY BOARD

Dewitt Community Library Social Media Policy

The Dewitt Community Library uses social media sites as a way to reach out to its users and community. Social media allow the Library to meet users where they are, and give staff and public a convenient way to interact and share information, ideas, and opinions on a range of topics related to the Library's mission, collections and services.

The Dewitt Community Library welcomes comments on our social networking sites. The Library not discriminate against any views. Nevertheless, the Library may monitor any user-generated content as it chooses and reserves the right to remove content for any reason whatever, without consent.

In addition, the Dewitt Community Library reserves the right to edit or modify any postings or comments for space or content, while retaining the intent of the original post.

The Dewitt Community Library assumes no liability regarding any event or interaction that takes place by any participant in any Library-sponsored social networking service, and does not endorse or review content outside the "pages" created by Dewitt Community Library staff. Participation in our library social networking services implies agreement with all Library policies as well as the Terms of Service of each individual third-party social network service. If a user does not agree to these terms, they should not use the services provided.
